5. References?

6. Partnership:

In respect of company registration documentation required for the above mentioned tender, SUPPLIER NAME is not a company, we are a Partnership. We therefore do not have any CIPRO documentation. SUPPLIER NAME is a Partnership formed by qualified persons to carry on a profession and designated by notice in the Government Gazette by virtue of section 30(2) of the Companies Act 61 of 1973.

7. We are able to provide you with our redacted Partnership Agreement, will this be acceptable?

Kindly note that registered joint ventures are allowed to tender. Partnerships recognised in law in terms of section 30(2) of the Companies Act of 1973 must provide u with the copy of the Partnership agreement, however the Partnership agreement must be clear that liability rests with all the Partners. SANBS needs to know who to hold accountable in the event of a dispute. Further I am not sure to what extent will the agreement be redacted because we need to know who the partners are and the terms of the agreement. In addition to this agreement being provided, we need a confirmatory letter from the law society confirming that the Partnership is practising as a law firm (similarly to the Sole Proprietor).
